WELCOME

We may still be sheltering in place, but we are gathered together through the Holy Spirit.

What you will need for today: a candle to mark Christ's presence with you, a Bible and something to eat and drink for celebrating Holy Communion. Yes, we are doing communion in this weird new way, but Jesus grabbed what was on his table at the time and so we can too trusting God's promise to show up. So grab whatever you can find, this can be a piece of bread, a cracker, a cookie and something to drink.

GATHER

We show up for community and grace from God.

PRELUDE

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, whose steadfast love is everlasting,
whose faithfulness endures from generation to generation.

Amen.

Trusting in the mercy of God, let us confess our sin.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Reconciling God,

we confess that we do not trust your abundance,
and we deny your presence in our lives.

We place our hope in ourselves and rely on our own efforts.

We fail to believe that you provide enough for all.

We abuse your good creation for our own benefit.

We fear difference and do not welcome others as you have welcomed us.

We sin in thought, word, and deed.

By your grace, forgive us; through your love, renew us;

and in your Spirit, lead us; so that we may live and serve you in newness of life.

Amen.

Beloved of God,
by the radical abundance of divine mercy
we have peace with God through † Christ Jesus, through whom we have obtained grace upon grace.

Our sins are forgiven.

Let us live now in hope.

For hope does not disappoint, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

KYRIE

In Latin kyrie eleison means "Lord have mercy." As you sing, think about the places where God needs to show up and name them out loud in your home or in the chat box.

SERMON

HYMN OF THE DAY

New each week. TBA

+ APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

At this time, we will unmute you all and we can say peace be with you on the count of three. . .1, 2, 3!

OFFERING

This is when we would be passing the plate around, but of course we cannot do this today. At this time, we invite you to prayerfully pause and offer your gifts to God- gifts of time, gifts of love and care for one another and financial gifts. Please mail your offering to the church (128 W 33rd St. Minneapolis, MN 55408) or give electronically through our website (www.zionchurchmpls.org). Thank you to those who are already doing Simply Giving and please contact the church office (josiah@zionchurchmpls.org) if you are interested signing up. We know everyone's financial situations are different and we thank you for your faithful and continued support.

OFFERING PRAYER

God of goodness and growth,
all creation is yours, and your faithfulness is as firm as the heavens.
Water and word, wine and bread: these are signs of your abundant grace.
Nourish us through these gifts, that we might proclaim your steadfast love in our communities and in the world, through Jesus Christ, our strength and our song.
Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION

We practice two sacraments in the Lutheran tradition: baptism and holy communion. These are celebrated in community, in public worship, where we can all participate and remember together: God is known for using ordinary earthly things (like water, bread, and wine) to make extraordinary promises (like forgiveness, salvation, healing and new life) to creation.

We don't serve ourselves communion because there's something holy about that promise coming from outside our own bodies, a perfect declaration from God spoken to us by our neighbor: This is the body of Christ, given for you. This is the blood of Christ, poured out for you. If you are gathered together with others from your household, speak these words aloud when you serve each other. If you do not have someone in the room with you while you receive the sacrament, hear my voice as the external word of grace and invitation.

Today is a good reminder that this simple meal nourishes God's community across time and space - this is why we call it communion. We would rather be with you in person for the sacrament today, but we trust Jesus to show up beyond our limitations, to meet us in this separation with a Spirit that unites, to feed us with the bread of life who is our source and strength.

+ GREAT THANKSGIVING

This is an altar, where we worship the One who provides for creation, where we remember we are so small and also we matter so much.

And this is a dinner table, where we show up honest and empty handed, where there is more than enough and everyone has a seat at the table.

Blessed are you, O God, the One who plants gardens and rains manna, who multiplies bread and fish for thousands,
who eats with outcasts and drinks with women, who is sacred love and life made flesh.

Words Of Institution

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.

Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:

This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.

Do this for the remembrance of me.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Mother, Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours, now and forever.

Amen.

Jesus has promised his full presence in this meal.
We don't know how he does it, showing up with the bread and wine so that we cannot pull them apart.
This love is impossible and irrational.
It is everything we need and cannot give ourselves.
And so we open ourselves to the mystery and hold out our hands to receive the gifts of God.

Come, Lord Jesus. Be our guest.
And let these gifts to us be blessed.
And may there be enough to share
on every table everywhere.

RECEIVE THE MEAL

The body of Christ, given for you. The blood of Christ, shed for you.

Communion Blessing

May the body and blood of Jesus Christ strengthen you and keep you in God's grace.

Amen.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

God of the welcome table, in this meal we have feasted on your goodness and have been united by your presence among us. Empower us to go forth sustained by these gifts so that we may share your neighborly love with all, through Jesus Christ, the giver of abundant life.

Amen.

SEND

We head out to share the good news and serve our neighbors from 6ft away.

FINAL BLESSING

Neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus.

God, the creator, † Jesus, the Christ, and the Holy Spirit, the comforter, bless you and keep you in eternal love.

Amen.
